Dear Anthony:

This is to let you know that today we received your submission titled Sterm 64.

Submissions are normally reviewed within one working day. They're evaluated in greater depth, in the order received. We take this evaluation seriously, for your sake and ours. Because we've been receiving so many submissions lately, this evaluation process usually takes longer than you or we would like. But rest assured, your submission is being evaluated and we will respond to you personally, as expeditiously as we can.

If you have a special need for an early response, please feel free to call. The best time to reach us by phone is between 10:00 A.M. and Noon (Pacific time), Monday through Friday.

Thanks for your interest in Broderbund.

Sincerely,

Carol B. Emery
